Avon, CT –

Target Insurance Services has just announced two new promotions.

G. Scott Williams, Esq. has been named Chief Underwriting Officer of Target Insurance Services. In this capacity, Mr. Williams will retain all current responsibilities as Vice President and General Manager of the company's Naperville, Illinois office and assume overall responsibility for the Underwriting Department of the Avon, CT office.

Wayne Carter, Target's President and CEO, cited Williams' successful, 30-year career in the insurance industry. "In particular, said Carter, "Scott has delivered remarkable results for Target's nationally recognized Lawyers and Accountants Professional Liability Programs, both of which are underwritten by Hartford Financial Products and available exclusively through Target."

Prior to joining Target, Mr. Williams served as Vice President of Non-Medical Professional Liability Programs at Interstate Insurance Group. He also held positions with Westport Insurance Corporation overseeing underwriting, claims, and actuarial management for their Lawyers Professional Liability Programs. He earned his Juris Doctor from IIT/Chicago Kent College of Law in 1980.

Carter has also promoted Diana Posada to the position of Operations Manager. Ms. Posada joined Target in 2000 and currently directs the company's Information Technology Dept. "In her new position as Operations Manager," says Carter, "she will also oversee Target's processes and procedures, particularly as they pertain to policy issuance and customer service."

Ms. Posada's previous career experience included increasingly senior roles at Kaiser Permanente, from 1986 to 2000. In addition to a background in accounting, her expertise extends to the research, analysis and resolution of business and technical issues, including analyzing business requirements for system enhancements.
